

Calligraphy Practice Sheet

The Dreamer by Langston Hughes

Bring me all of your dreams,
You dreamers,
Bring me all of your
Heart melodies
That I may wrap them
In a blue cloud-cloth
Away from the too-rough fingers
Of the world.

Monoline Practice Sheet

The Dreamer by Langston Hughes

Warm-Up: Trace this sheet as shown to work on muscle memory.

Level-Up: Practice adding balanced flourishes to this.

Bring me all of your dreams,
You dreamers,
Bring me all of your
Heart melodies
That I may wrap them
In a blue cloud-cloth
Away from the too-rough fingers
Of the world.

To make this one extra fun,
trying doing it with ink and a glass pen!

Challenge Yourself

Sketchnote Style Mixed Lettering

Use my sketchnote style (right) and make it your own using the poem below. It's one of my favorite poems, and it is in the public domain, so no copyright issues to worry about!

To make it easier, you could follow the same style pattern I did with my letters in the Shakespeare quote.

This style looks simple but can be a bit of a challenge to make look right. As always, sketching is key!

Playing during the sketch phase is, in my opinion, the most important part of the lettering process.

The Dream Keeper

Bring me all of your dreams,
You dreamers.
Bring me all of your
Heart melodies
That I may wrap them
In a blue cloud-cloth
Away from the too rough fingers
Of the world.
